

NAI Statistics 2020

The NAI is delighted to share with you its statistics of 2020! The NAI is the largest general arbitration institute in the Netherlands, a solid and innovative organisation with by far the most experience with and knowledge of different forms of ADR. The NAI is located in the centre of Rotterdam, the vivacious trading centre of the Netherlands with one of the largest ports of the world.

New cases received in 2020: 84

Number of pending cases on 31 December 2020: 99*

Total amount in dispute on 31 December 2020: € 1,939,976,677.27*

Maximum amount in dispute on 31 December 2020: € 400,000,000.00*

Minimum amount in dispute on 31 December 2020: € 11,757.75*

*includes all pending cases on 31 December 2020

New cases and open cases

In 2020, the NAI saw a continuation of the steady influx of new cases, with 84 new cases being registered and 99 total cases pending on the 31st of December 2020.

Finished proceedings in 2020

- Final award
- Terminated due to settlement
- Terminated due to other reasons
- Final award on agreed terms

*includes all pending cases in 2020

In 2020, the NAI saw a healthy balance between awards rendered by arbitral tribunals (41%) and parties terminating proceedings due to reaching an amicable settlement (36%).

Types of procedures in 2020

■ Arbitration ■ Summary Arbitral Proceedings ■ Binding Advice ■ Mediation ■ Ad hoc including UNCITRAL

*new cases only

In the types of procedures, it should be noted that the NAI's summary arbitral proceedings are second in frequency behind regular arbitration proceedings. This highlights the added value that the summary arbitral proceedings offer to parties choosing the NAI Rules.

*new cases only

The nationalities of the parties shows the added value of the NAI Rules not only for parties based in the Netherlands but also for parties based abroad.

Language of arbitrations in 2020

*new cases only

The balance between Dutch (57%) and English (43%) exemplifies the NAI's proven strength in administering both national and international disputes.

Method of appointment of arbitrators in 2020

- Appointed by the parties / co-arbitrators
- List procedure
- Appointed by the NAI

*includes appointments in all pending cases in 2020

The majority of appointments of arbitrators in 2020 were by the parties and co-arbitrators directly (73%), however, a sizable number of arbitrators were appointed through the NAI's unique list procedure (16%), and directly by the NAI (11%).

Gender of arbitrators appointed by the parties / co-arbitrators in 2020

*includes appointments in all pending cases in 2020

see also, the two following charts on appointments through the list procedure and direct appointments by the NAI

Gender of arbitrators appointed through the list procedure in 2020

*includes appointments in all pending cases in 2020

see also, the following chart on direct appointments by the NAI

Gender of arbitrators appointed directly by the NAI

In all pending cases in 2020

■ Male ■ Female

In new cases in 2020

■ Male ■ Female

We take great pleasure in showcasing that significant progress has been made in equalizing the gender of arbitrators directly appointed by the NAI. Since signing The Pledge in 2016, the NAI has been actively striving towards equal and fair representation in arbitration proceedings.

Sectors in 2020

*new cases only

The diversity in the sectors of disputes commenced in 2020 highlights the NAI's position as the largest general arbitration institute in the Netherlands. It also highlights the breadth and depth of the NAI's arbitrator pool, who are able to apply their expertise in a diverse range of disputes.